

Innovative sports training apparatus export

With assistance of Enterprise Europe Network Russia, Moscow Correspondence Center, Module A («Russian Agency for Small and Medium Business Support») and the Enterprise Europe Network Center of the Great Britain (the Organization «Business Link») the contract on cooperation between the Moscow Company and the company from Great Britain has been signed.

From the Moscow party - the Company "Sports-technology" participates in the contract – the innovative small enterprise which is engaged in working out and manufacture of innovative sports training apparatus for training of respiratory muscles / of respiratory system in movement (at physical activity). The Company-partner - UK Sports Products Ltd – the seller of the professional sports equipment.

The first contact between the organizations has been established with assistance of the Moscow EEN Center Module A at the end of May, 2009. And already at the beginning of August, 2009 the Parties signed the Contract for the first delivery of the goods.